COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVE REPORT:

Laura Redinger reported at the second City Council Meeting on August 18th, 2015 which is the third Tuesday of the month, the firm of Brandstetter-Carroll will be the guest speakers.

RECREATION DIRECTOR REPORT:

Recreation Director Tom Tupa reported the following:

- During the last Council Meeting, a report for review was given to Buildings and Grounds by Brandstetter-Carroll. There will be a meeting scheduled with them concerning the report when the Mayor returns home.

-New TVs and new workout equipment have been installed at the Community Center. The old TVs and equipment will be auctioned off at a future date.

-The Dog Jog at Home Days had to be moved indoors because of rain. However, it was well attended and turned out fine. Both fireworks events were well attended.

-The first Drive-In Event, that featured Big Hero 6, was a big success. The movie was shown at 9:15 and people started showing up at 8:00. This coincided with Summer Camp Lock-In.

-This is the last week of camp and summer sports are winding down.

-The Caboose is almost finished and the sanitary lines are being run to it. The tennis courts are being cleaned and the sewer needs to be redone.

-There are new signs for the ball fields and a new Comfort Station is now by Field D.

CVYO:

Meg English reported that almost all of the BTBA teams made it to the finals in their tournaments. Tryouts are taking place now for next year's season. Pat Barth's travel team went to Cooperstown and made a good showing finishing 7 and 1. They came in 9th place in all. Go Bees!

Run 4 Your Life:

Brian Stucky gave big kudos to the Dog Jog.

This year's Home Days 5K Race attracted many families despite the rainy weather. The Brecksville Home Days 5K had over 300 participants and the 1 Mile Run had over 50 children. The Run For Your Life Summer Workouts averaged over 70 youths per session. The Summer Running program averaged over 50 children and is supervised by BBHHS students. Brian singled out Tom, Bob and Pete for their outstanding job helping with the Home Days 5K Race

Other Business:
